C. P. VANDIVER, ED. AND PROP.

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI

Entered at the Post-office at Keytesville, Mo., as second-class matter.

DR. A. C. SEISER
DENTIST
KEYTESVILLE, MO.

Office Over Farmers' Bank.
PHONES: Office, 84; Residence, 2.

Cash or trade paid for butter, eggs and poultry at J. F. Whitesides.

Gorbin's dehorning pencils for use on calves are sold and guaranteed by Thrash Bros.

Attorney F. C. Sasse of Brunswick was at the capital Monday on business before the probate court.

No one could wish for nicer fall weather than we are having, but the new wheat crop is beginning to need rain.

Thrash Bros. have an independent free delivery. When you want prompt service on your orders for groceries, deal with them.

For reliable fire, lightning, windstorm, tornado or life insurance, see Martin & Taylor, Keytesville.

Our corpulent and genial friend, C. Y. Blakey, is building a handsome domicile of seven rooms on his splendid farm, near Shannondale.

Friday night was the coldest of the season. Ice on water troughs, etc., formed to the thickness of 1-16 of an inch and the leaves of vegetation were frozen stiff.

"Best in the world" is correct. We don't make any assertions but what we can prove when it comes to Glasgow flour. We guarantee our flour to be the best or money refunded.

J. C. T. KUBO.

Six small frame business houses were destroyed by fire at Atlanta, Macon county, Friday night. It is believed that the blaze was of incendiary origin and was started by a tramp whom a liveryman had refused to let sleep in the stable.

Mrs. J. W. Cheatham of Gilliam, Saline county, came over Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. A. C. Vandiver, and remained over Sunday with her friend, Mrs. J. M. Collins of Champaign, Ills., Mrs. Vandiver's daughter, who was here to attend the obsequies of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morgan and little grand-daughter, Eunice Thomas, of near Chraneville returned Sunday from a pleasant visit of nearly three weeks to their son, Sterling P. Morgan, and family of Skiatook, I. T., and their son-in-law, M. T. Richardson, and family of Cleveland, Okla.

Monday night at Keytesville lodge, No. 477, I. O. O. F., met in regular session and initiated Brad Burdick into the mysteries of Odd Fellowship. The goat had been pretty well rested and made a brave fight for his liberty, but after the second round Mr. Burdick had him under control. The attendance was fair. J. B. Carter of Pee Dee lodge, No. 580, rendered valuable assistance in conferring the degree. The receipts of the evening were $55.

W. E. Williams of five miles northwest of Keytesville had some sort of cancerous ulcer removed from his right cheek by Dr. B. Hughes Saturday afternoon. It is not certain that the place was a cancer, but as it had been spreading for some time Mr. Williams thought best to have it cut out. We hope the use of the surgeon's knife may effect a complete cure, and that Ed will soon have as much cheek as formerly.

The city council meets next Monday night.

If you want fresh groceries go to J. F. Whitesides.

If you want good bread, buy the Mexico flour. For sale by C. L. White.

We have just received two car loads of Michigan salt.

THRASH BROS.

Mrs. T. J. Hancock of Keytesville left Tuesday for Kingman, Kas., to visit her daughter, Mrs. M. F. Courtney.

I have just received an invoice of ribbon, including all the new wash ribbons.

MRS. C. P. VANDIVER.

The first step toward good bread is good flour. I handle Wm. Pollock & Son's celebrated Mexico, Mo., flour.

C. L. WHITE.

Our clever friend, H. B. Kendrick of near Mendon, is confined to his bed with an abscess of the lung, but we trust the malady will not result in anything serious.

Miss Bessie Crawley, one of Keytesville's best and most deserving young ladies, is home from a two-weeks' visit to her brother, Hon. C. B. Crawley, and children of St. Louis.

Eld. W. D. McCulley of Salisbury will preach at the Christian church in Keytesville Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week. All are cordially invited, and the members of the Christian church are especially urged to be present.

To clean up my stock I have put on sale many ready-to-wear hats for about half price. All ready-to-wear and children's hats included in this sale. Come and see them whether you wish buy or not.

MRS. C. P. VANDIVER.

One of our prominent city councilmen was hit squarely on the solar plexus by the COURIER's article on sidewalks last week. He says he believes a "roast" ought to be forthcoming when it is deserved, and he has promised to lay a new walk in front of his residence property just as soon as he can have the work done. There are others.

Mrs. Mary Herring, who was taken to St. Louis last week by her son, County Treasurer F. W. Herring, and her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Pelsue of Paris, Mo., to be treated by an X-ray machine for cancer of a lower extremity, preceded by an operation for milkleg, is getting along nicely, and the indications are favorable for a permanent cure.

Judge Jas. L. Stacy sold the Keytesville Roller mills Tuesday to J. L. Saunders of Tecumseh, Neb. Mr. Saunders is a practical miller and has had several years' experience in the business. He will overhaul the mills and put them in first-class working order, and says that he will manufacture the very best of flour, meal, etc. The COURIER hopes Mr. Saunders will meet with the liberal patronage a properly conducted mill deserves.

John Morrison-Fuller, the only man on earth, to our knowledge, who is so small that he had to take a part of his wife's name to make him appear significant, has ceased to publish the Glasgow Globe, the paper he bought of W. D. Settle for the purpose of fighting the Missouri Central Electric railroad. Fuller is not wholly without brains, but is devoid of principle and is a drunken sot whose only purpose in life seems to be to claw those who have incurred his displeasure. He worked at this so assiduously that he wore his claws to the quick and exhausted his brain power, and now only worships at the shrine of Bacchus. Fuller is a crank and the time always comes when cranks cease to turn. Fuller has evidently run down.

The regular November term of county court meets next Monday, and the regular November terms of probate and circuit court Monday, Nov. 9 and 16, respectively.

All my ready-to-wear hats must be sold within the next 10 days as I need the room for trimmed hats. If you need a nice, new hat, cheap, now is the time to get it.

MRS. C. P. VANDIVER.

Mrs. J. M. Collins and two of her children, Ernest and Julian, of Champaign, Ill., arrived Thursday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Collins' mother, Mrs. A. C. Vandiver, which occurred at the M.E. church, South, at 2 o'clock Friday. Rev. Robt. McIlvay officiating.

J. F. Whitesides has no stale groceries.

Try a sack of the celebrated Mexico flour at C. L. White's.

E. W. Stephens of the Columbia Herald was re-elected moderator of the Missouri assembly of the general Baptist association at Marshall last week, and Jas. L. Applegate of Keytesville was honored by being chosen auditor.

Prof. John B. Carter, who is teaching school in the Hills district, five miles south of Keytesville, has purchased C. C. Armstrong's stock of general merchandise at Forker, Linn county, of which he will take charge in the near future. Mrs. Carter will run the store until her husband's term of school expires.

T. V. Phelps, assistant cashier of the Bank of Keytesville, and family went over to Salisbury Saturday to attend the reception given Mr. Phelps' brother, T. J. of Armstrong, who was married at Kansas City, Wednesday, Oct. 21, to Miss Katie Briggs, also of Armstrong. The reception was given at the residence of the Phelps brothers' mother, Mrs. Wm. Tudor of three miles south of Salisbury, and was a very pleasant affair.

Royal Plumer, a Duroc Jersey pig, farrowed the 7th of last March, won the championship in the American Royal Live Stock show at Kansas City last week, and sold for $300. His four litter brothers made up the aggregate of $535 for the five head. They were from the splendid herd of C. Folgate of Stanberry, Mo. E. S. Pearson of 3 1-2 miles northwest of Keytesville is proud of the fact that the gilts he purchased of Mr. Folgate last winter are rich in the same blood, one of them being a half sister to these five young hogs sold at Kansas City last week.

You will find Chase & Sanborn's coffees to be the very best. Sold by Thrash Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. West of Brookfield made a short visit to Keytesville relatives the first of the week.

W. T. Cropper of Dalton has an "ad." in this issue of the COURIER. He is making a drive on stoves.

Messrs. Taylor & Dempsey shipped three carloads of fat cattle to St. Louis Monday, which they bought of J. M. Hershey of near Guthridge Mills. J. R. Dempsey and Mr. Hershey accompanied the cattle to market.

The wider publicity that is given a public sale of land or other property the better price it will bring. Attorneys, therefore, owe it to their clients their clients to place such publications in the newspaper that has the largest circulation. The COURIER has double the circulation of any other paper published in Chariton county.

Mrs. Wm. E. Hill returned home Saturday after a stay of five weeks with her daughter, Mrs. C. S. Keith of Kansas City.

C. B. Tillerson of near Shannondale received an accidental cut on the right arm while assisting to dig Mrs. T. B. Stamper's grave at Asbury cemetery Wednesday morning.

Mrs. G. W. Kuppler of Oklahoma City, Okla., who was formerly Miss Florence Ray of near Westville, is enjoying a visit to old Chariton county friends and relatives.

Morgan Griswold, an attaché of the postal service, will be in Keytesville to-morrow to hold examinations for a mail-carrier and eligible substitutes on rural free delivery route No. 1 out of Keytesville to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Clarence Foster.

Miss Minnie Dodd of Birmingham, Ala., who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. M. Elliott of near Shannondale, and her uncles, Chas. A. and A. M. Brill of near Salisbury and of Keytesville, respectively, left Friday night to spend a few days with her aunt, Mrs. George Morgan of Springfield, Mo., and will go from there to her southern home. She was accompanied as far as Shringfield by her uncle, A. M. Brill.

Wm. Redding of Liberty, Mo., is visiting friends and relatives in Keytesville and vicinity. He is a son-in-law of Mrs. A. G. Wood of three miles southeast of here and is a brother-in-law to J. J. Moore of this city. Although a resident of Liberty, Mr. Redding still owns a fine farm, near Mandeville, Carroll county, on which he made his home for many years. He was, however, born and reared in Keytesville, and has many old friends here who would welcome his return to their midst.
